

Community Advisory Committee (CAC)

Parents are an important partner with schools in developing and providing quality services to students with special education needs. In Placer County, the CAC is an advisory parent group that is active in this important mission. Foresthill has a parent representative who serves on this committee.

Please see the list of meetings in the Links section.

Holly Sear searholly@gmail.com